

NEW MACHINE NOW IN USE

Daily Democrat Set on Type setting Machine Today for
First Time

The Daily Democrat has just installed a Simplex typesetting machine, manufactured by the Unitype Company of Brooklyn, N. Y., and today, for the first time, began its use for the setting of the type for the paper. This machinery is a remarkable invention and an intricate piece of machinery. It sets type, and the operating team when fully proficient in the operation of the machine, will be able to set as much type in a day as four or five persons could by hand.

For a few days, until the young ladies operating the machine become experienced, the full amount of interesting reading which it is the expectation to give the readers of the Democrat, will not be presented, but after that some additional changes and improvements in the paper will be made, in addition to giving an increased amount of local and telegraph news.

Every family in Anadarko should have a copy of the Daily Democrat regularly each evening, and now is the time to subscribe.

NIGHT SCHOOL

Oklahoma City Putting on Real City Airs

Oklahoma City, Okla., Nov. 20.—Oklahoma City now has a bang up night school with over forty students in attendance. This school was brought about through the efforts of Superintendent Taylor, and the present indications are that it is going to be a splendid success. The students, who are for the most part from the working classes, devote from three to five hours every night in the class room of the high school buildings. A corps of four teachers has been engaged by the school board to instruct these classes. Common school studies, with shorthand and bookkeeping are the branches taught.

JUDGE BROWN

His Attitude Toward Criminal Boys Attracts Notice

Tulsa, Okla., Nov. 20.—District Judge T. E. Brown, who recently declared that as long as he is judge no boy under 16 years old shall go to the penitentiary from this district, has attracted widespread notice over the state. The newspapers have taken up his utterances and many commendatory notices are being published in his behalf. Judge Brown has established an enviable record since he has been on the bench. A total of twenty-five boys were paroled in his court room during the year just past.

Judge Brown believes the ends of justice are best served by explaining to each boy charged with crime brought before him, the seriousness of his offense, and to suspend sentence for a year, receiving a report from the delinquent at the end of the probation period.

LOST A FINGER

Negro Has Digit Bitten Off In a Fight

A negro named Walter Jefferson had the tip of the middle finger on the right hand bitten off during a free-for-all fight that occurred Thursday night at about 11 o'clock in a room on the second floor of a building located near the old Owl saloon.

Who the participants in the fight were or how it started the officers were unable to learn. At about 11 o'clock Officer Childs was called to the place, but found no one except Jefferson who claimed that another negro had bitten him and attempted to stab him. He also claimed that he had been shot. Jefferson was taken to a physician who dressed his injury.

Later in the night the police found a negro known as "Nappy Joe" whom it was thought knew something of the affair, but there was no evidence against him and he was released.

STREET PAVING

Lawton to Cut Out Possibilities of Graft

Lawton, Okla., Nov. 20.—Lawton is to have much street paving in the near future. There will be no chance for graft in this score, as outside contractors will have to compete with local business men who propose to mine their own asphalt, with which to pave the streets. Already the machinery for mining this valuable product is being placed. The asphalt in this section has been declared by experts to be the equal, if not much better than most of the material used in other cities by the big paving companies. It is proposed to use the home product in this city at all times in the future, where possible.

BUSINESS LIVELY

Building of New Road Means Much to Emerson

Emerson, Okla., Nov. 20.—With the announcement that the work is to begin immediately on the Lawton, Wichita Falls and Northwestern railroad, there is much business activity here. The starting point of the extension to Lawton, twenty miles north, is to be here, and the business men of Emerson look forward to the completion of the road as the starting point in their real prosperity. The officers of the new railroad are J. M. Bellamy, Lawton, president and general manager; C. P. Hopp, Oklahoma City, vice-president; S. J. Carpenter, Oklahoma City, secretary; and Will R. Walter, Oklahoma City, treasurer.

HARVARD-YALE

Great Football Game of the Season Due Saturday

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 20.—Tomorrow will occur the annual event of all events in footballdom, when the best eleven of Old Harvard and Yale meet in the annual contest here. Already the city is swarming with visitors from all sections of New England and the rest of the country. The city has been handsomely decorated in the colors of the two famous universities, and both teams are in quarters awaiting the signal which means that the great battle is about to begin. The men on both sides are in excellent condition, according to reports, and the contest tomorrow promises to be the most exciting seen in recent years. It will be the twenty-ninth game between the two eleven since the Rugby football was introduced in 1876.

AUTO RACE MEET

Crowds Go to Savannah for Great Sport Event

Savannah, Ga., Nov. 20.—Although several days must yet elapse before the opening of the big auto race meet here, the city is already becoming crowded with visitors from all parts of the country. Steamships from New York and other Atlantic ports are arriving here daily with visitors who will witness the famous grand prize race of the automobile club of America, which is to be held on Thanksgiving day. The extensive preparations for the big event on the part of local committees are now complete and nothing remains but the smaller details of the big races. Some of the most prominent autoists of the county are already here, and many of these will participate in the races have been here for some time.

This Newspaper Aims to Render

Real Service to YOU!

IF, BY some persistency in giving advice, this newspaper can convince every merchant of the wisdom of telling YOU all of his store-news that is important—of using enough space in which to do it, and of telling as much of his store news in every issue as you would be interested in knowing—and—

If, at the risk of over-iteration, this newspaper should convince you that this same store-news is of real, live, palpitating importance to YOU, as fully worthy of your attention as politics, or base ball, or Crowned Heads, or elopements, murders, riots, fashions or functions of the rich—and—

If it should follow that the merchants should prosper in exact ratio to their energy in advertising and that YOU should thrive in proportion to your intelligence in SPENDING YOUR INCOME—then this newspaper will feel that it has accomplished so real a public service that this city will be a still better place in which to live and to do business.

BIG CONVENTION OF EDUCATORS

Delegates to Annual Meeting of National Society Gathers in Atlanta

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 19.—The second annual meeting of the National Society for the promotion of industrial education will be formally opened here tonight to continue until Saturday. Hundreds of delegates are pouring into the city, including many of the most prominent men in the country. Industrial education as it relates to the prosperity of the country will be discussed at a banquet which will open the convention tonight, and at which the president of the Georgia branch, Asa G. Chandler, will preside.

Governor Hoke Smith will extend the welcome of the state, and act as toastmaster during the banquet. Other speakers include Secretary James Wilson of the Department of Agriculture, Andrew Carnegie, and the president of the National society, Dr. Carol D. Wright former, U. S. Commissioner of Labor, and now president of Clark college. Mr. Elmer Ellsworth Brown, United States Secretary to Commissioner of Education, is also scheduled for an important address.

The regular business sessions will begin tomorrow, and the subjects scheduled for discussion include the following: "Moral and Material Benefits of Industrial Education to the Nation," "Industrial Training through the Apprenticeship system," "Promotion of Industrial Education by Means of Trade Schools," "Industrial Education in the Public Schools."

The list of principal speakers includes some of the best known educators and captains of industry in the country. Among these are L. D. Harvey of Menominee, Wis., president of the National Educational Association, Charles S. Howe, president of the Case School of Applied Sciences, E. P. Dillard, a prominent manufacturer of Bridgeport, Conn., George N. Carman, director of the Lewis Institute, Chicago; Dr. Thomas E. Bailliet, dean of the School of Pedagogy of New York University. The society is only one year old, having been organized in Cooper's Union, New York, shortly before the first annual convention in Chicago just one year ago.

Mrs. E. C. Grimmett, who had been visiting friends in the city a few days, returned to Ft. Cobb last night.

MYSTERIOUS FIRE

Cotton Yard in Hobart Discovered in Flames

Another fire in the cotton yard adjoining the Farmers gin in Hobart has occasioned considerable comment in that city. The fire has occurred Wednesday morning between 3 and 4 o'clock, and was the third within the past two weeks. The prompt arrival of the fire department prevented a spread of flames, but four bales of cotton were destroyed. The frequency of the fires at this particular place has occasioned considerable speculation as to their cause, but as yet nothing has developed to throw any direct light on the mystery. The authorities are investigating, as it is believed the fires are from incendiary origin.

SEEKS LIBERTY

Man Serving Life Sentence Will Appeal Case

Guthrie, Okla., Nov. 20.—An appeal will be filed with the criminal court of appeals this afternoon, in the case of state against Rudolph Tegeler, the man now serving a life sentence in the Kansas penitentiary for the murder of James Meadows, Pioneer Telephone foreman, in June, 1907.

Tegeler and Mrs. Meadows, widow of the deceased, were tried in the Oklahoma county courts, and the former was given a verdict of not guilty following the conviction of Tegeler. The dead body of Meadows was discovered in his home in Capital Hill, and suspicion at once pointed to Mrs. Meadows and Tegeler, who had been holding clandestine meetings.

New Pastor

Rev. J. M. Johnson has been appointed to fill the vacancy in charge of the Anadarko M. E. church, South, and will occupy the pulpit next Sunday morning and evening. Rev. Johnson will move his family here at once and devote his entire time to the Anadarko charge.

FIRST FIRE IN STECKER

Mover Loses Tent and all His Belongings in the Blaze Thursday

The new town of Stecker, on the Rock Island between this city and Apache, experienced its first fire Thursday afternoon when a tent and moving outfit occupied by a man whose name could not be learned was completely destroyed.

The man and his family had come into Stecker the day before, the man having work picking corn, and the family had pitched their tent preparatory to making a temporary home. The tent was a new one, never having been used but once before, and the family had a good outfit.

Thursday afternoon a fire was built in a stove in the tent when some fire from the stove communicated to the tent the flames spreading so rapidly that nothing of the outfit could be saved. After the fire all the man had left was his horses.

FEAR TROUBLE

Renewal of McIntosh County Seat Contest

Eufaula, Okla., Nov. 20.—Now that the Supreme Court declared invalid the recent county seat election in McIntosh county, a new contest, which may develop even more startling features than did the last one, is expected. Before there was a blizzard, in addition to numerous squarrels. The feeling between the residents of Eufaula and Checotah, the contesting towns, is intense, and further trouble is feared. Two men were killed to the election as the result of the squabble before.
